

Home School Agreement

Aim

To develop a shared understanding of the part that home and school has to play in the education of the child.

Home-School agreements will be modified for those identified as Young Carers to take into account the individual child's needs, such as behaviour, mobile phones, extended provision and school trips.

Parents and Carers

I/We will :

- Let the school know about any concerns or problems that might affect my child's work or behaviour.
- Ensure that my child attends school regularly and punctually, arriving on time, appropriately dressed and equipped for P.E. and other agreed activities.
- Provide a note of explanation, telephone the school or inform a staff member if my child is absent.
- Encourage my child to work to his/her full potential within the school.
- Support my child in his/her homework and other opportunities for home learning.
- Support the school's policies, guidelines and staff in relation to attitudes and behaviour.
- Attend parent's evenings and discussions about my child's progress and know about my child's life at school.
- Not take holidays during school terms.

The School

The school will:

- Care for your child's happiness first by ensuring all safeguarding measures are in place.
- Encourage your child to achieve his/her full potential.
- Contact you to discuss any concerns or problems that affect your child's work, behaviour, and attendance.
- Arrange Parent's Evenings during which your child's progress will be discussed.
- Arrange, on request and as swiftly as possible, a mutually convenient time to discuss any concerns.
- Encourage your child to respect themselves, the needs of others, to care for their surroundings and to develop a sense of responsibility.
- Set, assess and monitor your child's work in accordance with the school's policies.
- Keep parents and carers informed about the school activities through letters, our website, diary date lists, emails, meet your teacher meetings and information updates.
- Send home an annual report.

The Child

I will:

- Be helpful and polite to others.
- Listen carefully to what I am told.
- Do all my class work and homework as well as I can.
- Tell a member of staff if I have a problem or need help.
- Treat other people and their property with respect.
- Keep myself and my belongings tidy.
- Follow the Golden Rules and the School Rules.
- Attend school regularly and arrive on time.
